

DISCOVER FRENCH PACIFIC PARADISE LESS THAN 3 HOURS FROM SYDNEY

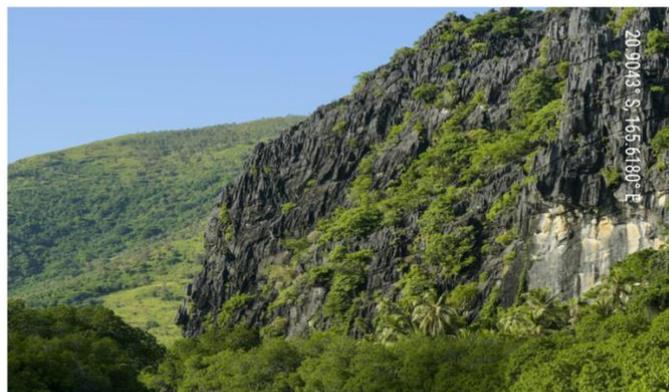

Our self-drive and holiday New Caledonia packages unravel the mysteries of this unique archipelago protected by the world's largest lagoon.

Hidden in the middle of the Pacific to the east of Australia, New Caledonia is a vast, unique, and diverse French overseas territory. Explore an incredible variety of landscapes, cultures, and activities—all in one place.

From picture-postcard perfect beaches to a mixing pot of cultures, stunning mountains, and vast plains, these magical islands are teaming with unforgettable experiences for every type of traveller. Learn more below!

UNFORGETTABLE NEW CALEDONIA SELF-DRIVE ITINERARIES

NEW CALEDONIA CULTURAL EXPLORER

Explore Grande Terre, the main island of New Caledonia, a cultural paradise for outdoor enthusiasts. Its diverse landscape features rugged mountains, expansive plains, and stunning coastlines. Visitors can explore stunning lagoons, hike in the lush rainforests, and discover the island's rich cultural heritage.

NOUMÉA CITY BREAK

Nouméa, the vibrant capital city of New Caledonia on the ocean, blends European cosmopolitan charm, trendy boutiques, and a lively dining scene with natural beauty and idyllic beaches.

8 DAYS ISLE OF PINES - NOUMEA

Île des Pins, the "Jewel of the Pacific," is a tropical paradise in New Caledonia. With its crystal-clear turquoise waters, white sandy beaches, and towering pine trees, it offers a serene escape. Explore natural wonders like the iconic natural pool, Grotte de la Reine Hortense, and immerse themselves in the local culture of the Kuniés.

5 DAYS BOURAIL – A REGION BETWEEN LAND AND SEA

Bourail, nestled on New Caledonia's west coast, is a hidden gem of natural beauty. Its pristine beaches and a stunning reef, are a haven for sunbathers and surfers.